A History of Race and Religion

David Nirenberg received his BA from Yale in 1986 and his doctorate from Princeton University in 1992. His books include Communities of Violence: Persecution of Minorities in the Middle Ages, Anti-Judaism: The Western Tradition, Neighboring Faiths: Christianity, Islam, and Judaism, Medieval and Modern, and Aesthetic Theology and its Enemies: Judaism in Christian Painting, Poetry, and Politics. His most recent book, Uncountable: A Philosophical History of Number and Humanity from Antiquity to the Present, was written in collaboration with his father Ricardo Nirenberg, a mathematician. His current project, from which these lectures are drawn, is tentatively entitled Adam’s Seed: A World History of Race and Religion from the Neolithic to the Present.

Presented by David Nirenberg
Director and Leon Levy Professor, Institute for Advanced Study

ROSENZWEIG LECTURES DATES

APRIL 8, 2022
12 NOON
Ancient Worlds: From Seed of Enlil to Seed of Abraham

APRIL 12, 2022
5 PM
Medieval Worlds: Christianity, Islam, and Judaism

APRIL 14, 2022
5 PM
New Worlds: From Columbus to Post-Colonialism

Sponsored by the Program in Judaic Studies