

Yale University Program in Judaic Studies
Jewish History Colloquium

presents

Excerpts from "Rahel Szalit-Marcus, a Jewish Artist in Berlin and Paris"

Presented by

Kerry Wallach

Kerry Wallach is Associate Professor of German Studies and an Affiliate of the Jewish Studies Program at Gettysburg College. She is the author of Passing Illusions: Jewish Visibility in Weimar Germany (University of Michigan Press, 2017) and a number of articles on German-Jewish literature, history, film, and visual and consumer culture. She is also a co-editor of the German Jewish Cultures book series published by Indiana University Press.

"The Fencer" Self-portrait by Rahel Szalit ca. 1930

Wednesday, October 21st, 2020 12:00 noon

Register in advance for this webinar:

https://yale.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_0FtOVV-mRh26gOf6wZ9H3Q

For more information contact—Renee Reed at renee.reed@yale.edu

YALE UNIVERSITY PROGRAM IN JUDAIC STUDIES

451 College Street, Rm. 301
New Haven, CT 06511
judaicstudies.yale.edu
email - renee.reed@yale.edu